Pacific Coast League Championship Series | Game 3

GAME 3 STARTERS

Jerome Williams
Throws: R
Rec: 1-0
ERA: 1.29

NOTES: Earned a Game 3 win against Tacoma in first round, allowing seven hits and one run in 7.0 innings ... has a 3.02 ERA at home ... has not faced Memphis since 2006 ... won for of his last six regular season decisions.

Evan MacLane
Throws: L
Rec: 1-0
ERA: 0.00

NOTES: Pitched 7.0 scoreless innings to earn a Game 3 win over Albuquerque in the first round ... gave up two runs and five hits over 6.0 innings against Sacramento on August 17, 2009.

Home cooking: Sacramento dominated Tacoma in the two playoff games at Raley Field, outscoring the Rainiers 26-10 in those contests. Sacramento had a PCL-best 45-27 record at home this regular season, and has won their last four games in West Sacramento (including playoffs). The River Cats will start two veteran pitchers in games 3 and 4 against Memphis, with Jerome Williams taking the mound Friday and Shawn Chacon on Saturday. Williams, who allowed one run over 7.0 innings to beat Tacoma in Game 3 in the first round, won 10 games for the San Francisco Giants in 2004. Chacon, who earned the win in Sacramento's series-clinching Game 4 against Tacoma, was an All-Star for the Colorado Rockies in 2003 when he won 11 games.

Elimination game history: Two of the last three times Sacramento has been involved in a series in which one team took a 2-0 series lead, the other team has come back to win in five. The only other time Sacramento has trailed a series 2-0 (first-round series against Salt Lake in 2007), the River Cats returned to Raley Field to win three games in a row and take the series in five games. Sacramento went on to win the Championship Series over New Orleans in a three-game sweep that season. Sacramento took a 2-0 series lead in a first-round series against Tacoma in 2005, only to have the Rainiers win games 3, 4 and 5 to stun Sacramento at Raley Field. Overall, Sacramento has a 4-3 record in playoff games in which a loss would end their season. In four Championship Series appearances, Sacramento has never before faced elimination.

Close calls: After going 25-13 in one-run games during the regular season, the River Cats have opened up this Championship Series by losing two one-run games in Memphis. During the regular season, Sacramento was 19-3 in one-run games at home and 6-10 on the road.

Missed chances: Sacramento's power, overwhelming in the first-round series against Tacoma when the team slugged 21 extra-base hits, did not show up in Memphis. After racking up eight home runs in the Tacoma series, Sacramento has no homers and just two doubles over two games in Memphis. The team went a combined 1-for-14 with runners in scoring position.

3-peat watch: The River Cats are attempting to become the first team to win three consecutive Pacific Coast League titles since Albuquerque did it from 1980-82. Sacramento has won two Triple-A titles (2007, 2008), four PCL titles (2003, 2004, 2007, 2008) and eight division titles (2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2007, 2008, 2009) in its 10-year history.

Slugging to history: Sacramento slugger Chris Carter already has four home runs in these playoffs – one in each game of the Tacoma series – and one more Carter bomb will set a River Cats record for most home runs in a single postseason. The first baseman/outfielder is currently tied with Daric Barton, Donnie Murphy, Brooks Conrad and Chris Denorfia.

Cats and 'Birds: Sacramento holds a 30-18 all-time regular season record over the Redbirds. The River Cats went 3-1 against Memphis this season (August 14-17), with all four games being played in Memphis' AutoZone Park.

Conference Championship series: The Memphis Redbirds swept the Albuquerque Isotopes in the PCL American Conference Championship Series. Redbirds pitchers allowed only four runs over the three games ... Sacramento topped the Tacoma Rainiers in four games, scoring 36 runs and hitting eight home runs in the four games.
