SACRAMENTO RIVER CATS (15-15) at LAS VEGAS 51s (11-19)

RHP Edgar Gonzalez (2-2, 4.55) vs. LHP Brian Burres (1-2, 4.50)

Cashman Field | Monday, May 11, 2009 | 10:30 A.M. (PDT)

Game 31 | Road Game 15

Roughed up: Sacramento's pitching staff has had a rough time with Las Vegas batters this series. River Cats starters have allowed a combined 18 runs (15 earned) over 14.2 innings in the three games, while walking 11 batters and striking out 10. Starter Dana Eveland got Sacramento off to a rough start Friday, allowing eight runs (five earned) over 6.0 innings in what turned out to be a 14-10 loss. On Saturday, Gio Gonzalez allowed four runs in five innings in a 8-7 loss in the 10th inning. And on Sunday, James Simmons allowed six runs in just 3.2 innings to take the loss. Sacramento's bullpen hasn't fared much better, blowing two saves (Friday and Saturday) while allowing 13 runs over 10.2 innings. Chris Schroder took the loss on Friday, allowing three runs in the 51s' eight-run seventh inning. Brad Kilby took the loss Saturday, walking four batters (including forcing home the winning run) in the 10th inning. Edgar Gonzalez, who has fared well over his career against Las Vegas, will try to end the pitching slide today for Sacramento. Gonzalez has a 3.75 ERA and 4-4 record all-time against Las Vegas, including a win earlier in the season against the 51s. Gonzalez has faced Las Vegas nine times over four different seasons while pitching in the PCL.

Home is wear the 'W' is: In Sacramento's and Las Vegas' seven meeting so far this season, the home team has won all seven games. Sacramento swept Vegas in a four-game series from April 25-28, winning three of the games by a single run. Sacramento's pitching was in top form in that series, holding Las Vegas to 15 runs over the four games. The 51s have racked up the scoring in the teams' three games at Cashman Field, scoring 31 runs in only three games. Las Vegas is 8-7 at home so far this season, but only 3-12 away from Sin City.

Double down: Sacramento catcher Eric Munson was only a double shy of the cycle Saturday night, one night after lead-off man Eric Patterson was a single shy of the feat. Munson singled in the second, tripled in the fifth and hit a game-tying home run in the eighth inning. It was Munson's third homer of the season, and he recorded his ninth and 10th RBIs of the season in the game. The power-hitting catcher, who was called up April 21 from Extended Spring Training, is batting .289 on the season.

Leading the charge: Sacramento River Cats lead-off man Eric Patterson was a single away from the cycle during Friday night's slugfest, in which the River Cats and Las Vegas 51s combined to score 24 runs. Patterson led off the game with a double, but was thrown out at home trying to score on a sacrifice fly to right field. The left-handed hitter tripled to right-center field in the second inning, scoring Joel Galarraga. Patterson hit a three-run home run in the third inning, capping a six-run rally that gave Sacramento a 9-3 lead at the time. With six innings to go, the center fielder needed only a single to finish the cycle. However, Patterson lined out to center field in the sixth inning and flied out in the eighth. Patterson is batting .302 in the lead-off role this season, with 17 of his 19 runs coming at that spot. His five RBIs tied a River Cats single-game high for this season, and his triple gave him a team-high three.

Catching on: Joel Galarraga has made quite the impression in his short stint with the River Cats. Since being called up April 30, the catcher is batting .417 in 24 at-bats. He has scored five runs and hit two doubles in the eight games he has seen action. On Friday night, the right-hander went 2 for 4 with a double, two runs and three RBIs. It was a good day all around for Sacramento catchers, as Eric Munson (normally a catcher, but the team's designated hitter Friday) went 2 for 4 with a double and a run scored.

Nice to meet you: The Sacramento River Cats had a rough time in their first ever meeting with the Reno Aces, losing three of four games from Monday through Thursday at Raley Field. It was the first series the River Cats lost since dropping three of four to the Tacoma Rainiers in the season's opening series. Reno (formerly the Tucson Sidewinders) is now the closest Pacific Coast League team to the River Cats – just a two-hour drive up Interstate 80 separates the two cities. Reno is managed by former San Francisco Giants leadoff hitter Brett Butler, and currently sits in second place in the PCL standings, 2.0 games behind first-place Sacramento in the South Division.
